In summary, the NZX50G had 16 companies on the downside, 1 remained unchanged and 33 companies were on the upside. Another positive week for the NZX50G increase closing the week 0.92% higher. The NZ dollar appreciated against the USD and AUD last week recovering from a pull back on the announcement that the RBNZ left the OCR as status quo. South Korea has become the first major Asian economy to raise interest rates since the coronavirus pandemic began. The Bank of Korea increased its base rate of interest from a record low of 0.5% to 0.75%. The move is aimed at helping curb the country's household debt and home prices. In the U.S. equities gained to another record high as investors took assurance from comments by Jerome Powell that the withdrawal of stimulus would be gradual. The Federal Reserve chairman reinforced the message that it would be appropriate to begin tapering bond purchases by the end of the year but also drew a line between asset purchases and interest rates, saying the Fed wouldn't be in a hurry to begin increasing rates after it begins tapering its $120bn-a-month bond-buying program.
